March 16, 2015

Dear Giulia Lato,

This letter is to thank you for volunteering your time during the Winter 2015 academic semester as a volunteer in the Alternative Spring Break Program from March 2nd to 6th, 2015 and for your work in the Montreal community. Alternative Spring Break is a project connecting McGill students with local Montreal community organizations through an in-depth, weeklong placement in a volunteer organization. This engagement is complemented by learning and reflection opportunities throughout the Alternative Spring Break experience.

Thank you for volunteering your time and developing yourself as a leader in the academic, social and personal spheres of your community. Your dedicated involvement was essential in fulfilling the objectives of Alternative Spring Break, which provides community engagement and leadership opportunities for McGill students. This letter attests to your dedication to your community organization and to enhancing your knowledge of societal issues in Montreal.

On behalf of the Office of the Dean of Students, I would like to commend you for your contributions to the McGill and Montreal community, and wish you continued success and growth.

Yours sincerely,

Andre Costopoulos

Dean of Students,
McGill University
